

Amazing Grace (to the tune of The House of The Rising Sun)

[Am]Amazing [C] grace! How [D] sweet the [F] sound
that [Am] saved a [C] wretch like [E7] me!
I [Am]once was [C] lost, but [D] now am [F] found,
was [Am] blind, but [E7] now I [Am] see.

[Am] 'Twas grace that [C] taught my [D] heart to [F] fear,
and [Am] grace my [C] fears [E7] relieved;
How [Am] precious [C] did that [D] grace [F] appear
The [Am] hour I[E7] first be-[Am]lieved.

[Am]Through many [C] dangers, [D]toils, and [F] snares,
I [Am] have al[C]ready [E7] come;
'tis [Am]grace hath [C] brought me [D] safe thus [F] far,
and [Am] grace will [E7] lead me [Am] home.

[Am] The Lord has [C] promised [D] good to [F] me,
His [Am] word my [C]hope se-[E7]cures;
He [Am] will my [C]shield and [D] portion [F]be,
as [Am] long as [E7] life en-[Am]dures.

[Am] Yea, when this[C] flesh and [D] heart shall [F]fail,
And [Am] mortal [C] life shall [E7]cease,
I[Am] shall po-[C]ssess, with[D]in the [F] veil,
a [Am]life of [E7] joy and [Am] peace.

[Am] When we've been [C] there ten [D]thousand [F]years,
bright [Am]shining [C]as the [E7] sun,
we've [Am]no less [C]days to [D]sing God's [F]praise
than [Am] when we [E7] first be-[Am]gun.

[Am]Amazing [C] grace! How [D] sweet the [F] sound
that [Am] saved a [C] wretch like [E7] me!
I [Am]once was [C] lost, but [D] now am [F] found,
was [Am] blind, but [E7] now I [Am] see.
