Tempo 160 - First Note D

Intro: [G] (4 beats) [A] (4 beats) [D] (strum once) [NC] (2 beats)

Well you, [D]get down the fiddle now, [A]get down the bow,
[G]Kick off your shoes and you [D]throw 'em on the floor.
Dance in the kitchen 'til the [A]mornin' light,
[G]Louisiana [A]Saturday [D]night.

[D]Waitin' in the front yard, [A]sittin' on a log,
A [G]single-shot rifle and a [D]one-eyed dog.
Yonder come a kinfolk [A]in the moonlight,
[G]Louisiana [A]Saturday [D]night.

Woah, [D]get down the fiddle now, [A]get down the bow,
[G]Kick off your shoes and you [D]throw 'em on the floor.
Dance in the kitchen 'til the [A]mornin' light,
[G]Louisiana [A]Saturday [D]night.

[D]My brother Bill and [A]other brother Jack,
[G]Belly full of beer and a [D]possum in his sack.
Fifteen kids in the [A]front porch light,
[G]Louisiana [A]Saturday [D]night.

When the [D]kinfolk leave and the [A]kids get fed,
[G]Me and my women gonna [D]slip off to bed.
Have a little fun when we [A]turn out the lights,
[G]Louisiana [A]Saturday [D]night.

Woah, [D]get down the fiddle now, [A]get down the bow,
[G]Kick off your shoes and you [D]throw 'em on the floor.
Dance in the kitchen 'til the [A]mornin' light,
[G]Louisiana [A]Saturday [D]night.

Yeah, [D]get down the fiddle now, [A]get down the bow,
[G]Kick off your shoes and you [D]throw 'em on the floor.
Dance in the kitchen 'til the [A]mornin' light,
[G]Louisiana [A]Saturday [D]night.

Chorus – a capella - rhythm but no ukulele chords:
Yeah, get down the fiddle now, get down the bow,
Kick off your shoes and you throw 'em on the floor.
Dance in the kitchen 'til the mornin' light,
Louisiana Saturday night.
