[C] Oh, the Sisters of [F] Mercy
They [C] are not de[G]parted or [C] gone.
They were [Em] waiting for [Bm] me
When I [Em] thought that I [Bm] just can't go [D] on.
And they [F] brought me their [C] comfort,
And [G] later they [F] brought me their [G] song.
Oh, I [C] hope you run [F] into them [C] you,
Who've been [G] travelling so [C] long.

Yes, you who must [F] leave every[C]thing
That you [G] cannot con[C]trol.
It be[Em]gins with your [Bm] family,
But [Em] soon it comes [Bm] round to your [D] soul.
Well I've [F] been where you're [C] hanging,
I [G] think I can [F] see how you're [G] pinned.
When you're [C] not feeling [F] holy
Your [C] loneliness [G] says that you've [C] sinned.

Well, they [C] lay down be[F]side me,
I [C] made my con[G]fession to [C] them.
They [Em] touched both my [Bm] eyes
And I [Em] touched the [Bm] dew on their [D] hem.
If your [F] life is a [C] leaf
That the [G] seasons tear [F] off and con[G]demn,
They will [C] bind you with [F] love
That is [C] graceful and [G] green as a [C] stem.
