[D] On the old farmhouse veranda there sat [E7] Silas and Miranda
Thinking [A] of the days gone [D] by
Said he "Dearie, don't be weary, you were [E7] always bright and cheery
But a [A] tear dear dims your [D] eye"
Said she [E7] "They are tears of gladness, they're not tears of sadness,
It is fifty years today that we were [A] wed"
Then the [D] old man's dim eyes brightened and his [E7] stern old heart lightened
As he [A] turned to her and [D] said

Chorus:

Put on your [G] old grey bonnet with the [C] blue ribbon on it
While I [G] hitch old Dobbin to the [D] shay
And [G] through the fields of clover We'll drive [C] up to [G] Dover
On our golden [D] wedding [G] day

[D] It was in the same old bonnet with the [E7] same blue ribbon on it
In the [A] old shay by his [D] side
But he drove her up to Dover from the [E7] same old fields of clover
To [A] become his happy [D] bride
The birds [E7] were sweetly singing and the same old bells were ringing
As they passed the quaint old church where they were [A] wed
And that [D] night when stars were gleaming the old [E7] couple lay a dreaming
Of [A] the words he [D] said

Chorus:

Put on your [G] old grey bonnet with the [C] blue ribbon on it
While I [G] hitch old Dobbin to the [D] shay
And [G] through the fields of clover We'll drive [C] up to [G] Dover
On our golden [D] wedding [G] day
