[D] Looking for my wallet and my [G] car keys,
[A] Well they can't have gone too [D] far
As soon as I find my [G] glasses,
[A] I'm sure I'll see just where they [D] are.

Supposed to meet someone for lunch [G] today,
[A] But I can't remember [D] where
Or who it is that I am [G] meeting,
[A] It's in my 'organizer', [D] somewhere

I might have left it on the [G] counter,
[A] Or maybe outside in the [D] car
Last time I remember [G] driving,
[A] Was to that memory enhancement semi-[D]nar.

What's that far off distant [G] ringing,
[A] And that strange familiar [D] tone
Must be the person I am [G] meeting,
[A] Calling on my brand new cordless [D] phone.

Might have left it under the [G] covers,
[A] Or maybe outside on the [D] lawn
I've got just one more [G] ring to go,
[A] Before my answering machine kicks [D] on.

'Click'

[G] Hi, this is Frank, and your call means a [A] lot to me,
So leave a message at the [D] tone
And I'll do my [G] best
To [A] call you back when I get [D] home.

'Beep'

[G] Frank, this is Gwendolyn,
[A] And I'm trying not to [D] cry,
I've been waiting over an [G] hour,
[A] I thought you loved me,
This is good-[D]bye.

... The voice sounds fam-[G]iliar,
[A] And the name, it rings a [D] bell
Let's see now where was [G] I?
[NC] Oh [D] well ...
